

Chen Fei

Chen Fei was born in Shanxi in 1983. He graduated from Beijing Film Academy in 2005. Currently works and lives in Beijing. The subject matter of Chen Fei's artworks is centered on the everyday life, whose depictions of personal emotional and various observations on life are meticulous. In the past, many anime/comic artists used to focus their depiction of the comic style of their subjects, whereas Chen Fei's artworks encompass all emotions, the subjects, context and the ideas of his creativity, which make his works stand out from the others. Those works are not only a genre of anime, but Chen Fei adopted a language of expression that he was familiar with to convey life and the various values living it.
